CUSTOMER DECLARATION

Adventure activities are physical and demanding sports, which have inherent hazards associated with them. While Chris Hughes Multi Activity Services Ltd (CHMAS) will take all reasonably practical steps to try and ensure the safety of all our participants, unfortunately accidents can occur. Each participant should familiarise themselves with the hazards and try to minimise these as much as possible by complying with the CHMAS risk management guidelines.

The management accepts no responsibility whatsoever for any loss or injury resulting from any person’s involvement in adventurous activities. Furthermore, it is understood and agreed that adventurous activities are an assumed risk sport and that individuals participate at their own risk.

CHMAS instructors are qualified and suitably experienced to lead the activities they run. For your own safety and that of other group members you must follow their instructions at all times.

I declare that the information above is correct and I accept that adventurous activities do contain an element of risk. I willingly choose to accept these risks.

I have read (or heard) and understand the safety briefing Yes / No (delete as applicable)
